CANNIBALS OPEN

The opening of the week of the community canneries here and at Lynchburg, Va., is an important event. Food preservation is a much-needed skill, and the canneries are a most efficient way of preserving food. We are glad to see that the canneries are open and that the community canneries are being used to the fullest.

It tells us of the progress of the Allied Forces in Europe, and it tells us of the progress of the war. It is a most valuable report, and it is a most interesting and informative one.

GRANITE TRIFLES

According to a consensus of opinion delivered recently from members in the pulp and paper industry, the pulpwood situation in the world is improving. While conditions are not yet normal, and while there are still shortages, the picture is no longer completely gloomy.

FOOD FOR THE MIND

From Winchester Star

It is the custom, and a proper one, to estimate Europe's need in terms of calories. But it should not be forgotten that the mind of the continent needs food, not only for the body but for the mind.

But don't jump to conclusions that there has been a marital rift in the gubernatorial household or that the husband and wife have quarreled. We are happy to report that the Governor and Mrs. E. A. Tamm have been seen together in the city. The Governor is in the city on business, and the Governor's wife is in the city on business. They are both in the city on business.
